ABOUT THE TOURNAMENT

The 11th Annual Ravenna Invitational is a charity golf tournament benefiting the Infinite Hero Foundation, supporting programs focused on suicide prevention, leadership development, family support, and brain health for veterans and their families.

THE COURSE

Ravenna Country Club

Littleton, CO · Jay Morrish, 2007

A private course terraced into the red-rock foothills southwest of Denver, often cited as one of the last designs of architect Jay Morrish. Known for dramatic elevation changes, forced carries across wooded ravines, and one of the highest slope ratings in Colorado. Private and family-owned, with a capped membership.

THE CAUSE

Infinite Hero Foundation

A nonprofit dedicated to supporting veterans and their families by funding innovative treatment programs for combat-related injuries, including PTSD and traumatic brain injury.
