ABOUT THE TOURNAMENT

The Castle Rock Professional Firefighters Foundation Golf Tournament is a charity golf event raising funds to provide essential resources and assistance to Colorado firefighters and their families.

THE COURSE

Plum Creek Golf Club

Castle Rock, CO · Pete Dye, 1984

A Pete Dye design in Castle Rock that opened in 1984 as a former TPC course and Champions Tour host. Known for signature Dye touches including railroad ties around the greens, dramatic elevation changes, and the par-3 12th with 10,000 railroad ties surrounding it. Now operates as a public course.

THE CAUSE

Colorado firefighters and their families

Funds raised at this event support Colorado firefighters and their families, administered through the Castle Rock Professional Firefighters Foundation. Beneficiaries typically include firefighter family hardship assistance, line-of-duty support, and community fire-safety programs.
