ABOUT THE TOURNAMENT

The Colorado Marriott Business Council hosts this annual golf tournament benefiting Children's Miracle Network Hospitals, with proceeds directly supporting Children's Hospital Colorado.

THE COURSE

Red Rocks Country Club

Morrison, CO · Harwood/Phelps, 1975

A private course in Morrison set amid red sandstone formations near Red Rocks Park, originally opened in 1975 as Willow Springs Country Club. The course was laid out by Stanley Harwood, expanded to 18 holes by 1984, renovated by Dick Phelps around 2000, and most recently reworked by member-architect Kevin Atkinson. Known for views of the Denver skyline and a setting that incorporates the area's signature sandstone outcroppings.

THE CAUSE

Children's Miracle Network Hospitals / Children's Hospital Colorado

Children's Miracle Network Hospitals raises funds for children's hospitals across North America. Donations to Children's Hospital Colorado support life-saving pediatric care, research, and treatment for kids in the region.
