ABOUT THE TOURNAMENT

The Colonel's Challenge is an annual charity golf tournament benefiting the Colorado State Patrol Family Foundation, which supports families of fallen officers, mental health services, and education scholarships for CSP members. Over the past quarter-century, the tournament has raised over $2.1 million.

THE COURSE

Ravenna Country Club

Littleton, CO · Jay Morrish, 2007

A private course terraced into the red-rock foothills southwest of Denver, often cited as one of the last designs of architect Jay Morrish. Known for dramatic elevation changes, forced carries across wooded ravines, and one of the highest slope ratings in Colorado. Private and family-owned, with a capped membership.

THE CAUSE

Colorado State Patrol Family Foundation

A Colorado nonprofit supporting Colorado State Patrol troopers and their families through a Fallen Officer Fund, Hardship Fund, and Scholarship Fund. Provides financial assistance after line-of-duty deaths, hardship situations, and educational support for trooper families.
