ABOUT THE TOURNAMENT

Carolina Children's Charity holds its third annual Golf Tournament at Daniel Island Club in Charleston, SC to raise funds for Lowcountry children with birth defects and childhood diseases. The charity provides families with grants to help cover medical needs when no other support is available.

THE COURSE

Daniel Island Club

Charleston, SC · Private Club

A private golf club on Daniel Island in Charleston, South Carolina. Set within a planned community along the tidal marshes and waterways of the Lowcountry, the club serves members and sponsored guests. Access is restricted to members and their guests, making it a member-event venue for charity tournament organizers with the right connections.

THE CAUSE

A nonprofit organization dedicated to helping children in the Lowcountry region who are affected by birth defects and childhood diseases.
