ABOUT THE TOURNAMENT

The CASA Classic is a charity golf scramble at the private Harmony Club in Timnath, Colorado, with proceeds supporting CASA of Larimer County's mission to advocate for children and strengthen families.

THE COURSE

Harmony Club

Timnath, CO · James J. Engh, 2007

A Jim Engh-designed private course in Timnath, southeast of Fort Collins, opened in 2007. Known for wide fairways, distinctive Engh-style "muscle bunkers," and a front nine routed through neighborhood land with the back nine moving into a more natural riparian corridor along creeks. Notable as a frequent training facility for Colorado State University's golf teams.

THE CAUSE

CASA of Larimer County

The Larimer County chapter of CASA (Court Appointed Special Advocates), a national 501(c)(3) that trains volunteers to advocate for abused and neglected children in the court system. Volunteers serve as a consistent voice for children navigating the foster care and child welfare system.
