ABOUT THE TOURNAMENT

The Colorado Paralysis Foundation's Second Annual Golf Tournament is a fundraiser supporting an improved quality of life for those affected by or living with paralysis in Colorado.

THE COURSE

Hiwan Golf Club

Evergreen, CO · Press Maxwell, 1962

A high-altitude mountain course in Evergreen, set at 7,600 feet on the former Hiwan Ranch and designed by J. Press Maxwell. Known for ponderosa-lined fairways, dramatic elevation changes, and a long history as host of the Colorado Open from 1964 to the early 1990s. Private member-owned club.

THE CAUSE

Colorado Paralysis Foundation

A Colorado nonprofit supporting individuals living with paralysis from spinal cord injury and related conditions. Funds resources, community programs, and grants to improve quality of life and independence for paralysis survivors and their families.
