ABOUT THE TOURNAMENT

The Crested Butte Open & Auction raises funds for the Adaptive Sports Center to provide affordable lessons to people with disabilities, scholarship funds, and adaptive sports equipment. The golf tournament is held at The Club at Crested Butte, a course sitting at 9,000 feet above sea level.

THE COURSE

The Club at Crested Butte

Crested Butte, CO · Robert Trent Jones, Jr., 1984

A semi-private Robert Trent Jones Jr. design at roughly 9,000 feet of elevation in the Elk Mountains. Known for fairways routed among aspen groves and trout-filled lakes, sweeping mountain views, and the dramatic plunging 13th hole. The only golf course in town and often cited among Colorado's notable mountain layouts.

THE CAUSE

Adaptive Sports Center – affordable lessons for people with disabilities, scholarship funds, and adaptive sports equipment

Funds raised support the Adaptive Sports Center based in Crested Butte, a Colorado 501(c)(3) that provides affordable adaptive sports lessons, scholarships, and specialized equipment for individuals with physical and cognitive disabilities.
