ABOUT THE TOURNAMENT

The Crested Butte Open is an annual charity golf tournament and gala fundraiser supporting the Adaptive Sports Center's mission to provide inclusive, life-changing recreation opportunities for people with disabilities. Funds raised support affordable lessons, scholarships, and adaptive sports equipment.

THE COURSE

The Club at Crested Butte

Crested Butte, CO · Robert Trent Jones, Jr., 1984

A semi-private Robert Trent Jones Jr. design at roughly 9,000 feet of elevation in the Elk Mountains. Known for fairways routed among aspen groves and trout-filled lakes, sweeping mountain views, and the dramatic plunging 13th hole. The only golf course in town and often cited among Colorado's notable mountain layouts.

THE CAUSE

Adaptive Sports Center – adaptive sports programs, scholarships, and equipment for people with disabilities

Funds raised support the Adaptive Sports Center based in Crested Butte, a Colorado 501(c)(3) that provides outdoor adaptive sports programming, scholarships, and equipment for people with disabilities. Programs include skiing, mountain biking, climbing, and other year-round outdoor activities.
