ABOUT THE TOURNAMENT

The Friends of Baseball John Dollarhide Memorial Golf Tournament is an annual charity golf event held at Greeley Country Club, offering participants the chance to play alongside a former Major League Baseball player while supporting baseball programs in Northern Colorado.

THE COURSE

Greeley Country Club

Greeley, CO · Maxwell/Bendelow, 1920

A historic private parkland course in Greeley with origins dating to 1920. The original nine holes were laid out by Tom Bendelow; J. Press Maxwell redesigned the existing holes and added the back nine in 1962. Known for small greens, mature trees, and water and out-of-bounds hazards that demand shot accuracy.

THE CAUSE

Friends of Baseball / baseball programs in Northern Colorado

A Northern Colorado nonprofit supporting youth and community baseball programs in the region. Provides equipment, field improvements, and program funding to expand access to baseball for area youth.
