ABOUT THE TOURNAMENT

Links Fore Liam hosts annual charity golf tournaments in multiple states to benefit pediatric brain cancer research. The Colorado event takes place at Red Rocks Country Club in Morrison, CO.

THE COURSE

Red Rocks Country Club

Morrison, CO · Harwood/Phelps, 1975

A private course in Morrison set amid red sandstone formations near Red Rocks Park, originally opened in 1975 as Willow Springs Country Club. The course was laid out by Stanley Harwood, expanded to 18 holes by 1984, renovated by Dick Phelps around 2000, and most recently reworked by member-architect Kevin Atkinson. Known for views of the Denver skyline and a setting that incorporates the area's signature sandstone outcroppings.

THE CAUSE

Pediatric brain cancer research

Funds raised at this event support pediatric brain cancer research, administered through Links Fore Liam, a Colorado-based 501(c)(3) honoring Liam Patrick Mahan.
