ABOUT THE TOURNAMENT

The NKF Golf Classic at The Club at Pradera is a charity golf tournament benefiting the National Kidney Foundation, held at The Club at Pradera in Parker, Colorado.

THE COURSE

The Club At Pradera

Parker, CO · James J. Engh, 2004

A Jim Engh-designed private club in Parker, often described as Engh's home course. Known for an Irish links-influenced style with pot bunkers, native roughs, and a mix of punchbowl, plateau, and ground-level greens across rolling Douglas County terrain. The course offers seven sets of tees and is the centerpiece of the Pradera master-planned community.

THE CAUSE

National Kidney Foundation

The Colorado chapter of the National Kidney Foundation, a national 501(c)(3) that funds kidney disease research and provides education, advocacy, and patient support services. Focuses on preventing kidney disease, improving outcomes for patients on dialysis, and supporting transplant recipients and donors.
