ABOUT THE TOURNAMENT

The Scouting America Golf Classic is an annual four-player scramble tournament benefiting the programs of Scouting America's Adventure West Council. Held at Ptarmigan Country Club in Fort Collins, CO, the event features friendly competition, food, prizes, and fundraising for local youth Scouting programs.

THE COURSE

Ptarmigan Country Club

Fort Collins, CO · Jack Nicklaus Signature, 1988

A private Jack Nicklaus signature course in Fort Collins, opened in 1988 with sweeping Rocky Mountain views to the west. Known for nearly 100 bunkers, rolling terrain, and roughly 100 feet of elevation change across the property. Serves as the home course for Colorado State University's women's golf program.

THE CAUSE

Scouting America, Adventure West Council

The Adventure West Council of Scouting America (formerly Boy Scouts of America), serving youth across portions of Colorado, Wyoming, and surrounding areas. Provides Scouting programs that build character, leadership, and outdoor skills for participants.
