THE COURSE

The Club At Pradera

Parker, CO · James J. Engh, 2004

A Jim Engh-designed private club in Parker, often described as Engh's home course. Known for an Irish links-influenced style with pot bunkers, native roughs, and a mix of punchbowl, plateau, and ground-level greens across rolling Douglas County terrain. The course offers seven sets of tees and is the centerpiece of the Pradera master-planned community.

THE CAUSE

Tee It Up for the Troops Nationwide and Freedom Service Dogs

Funds raised support Tee It Up for the Troops (a national 501(c)(3) supporting veterans and military families) and Freedom Service Dogs of America, a Colorado-based nonprofit that trains rescue dogs to serve as service dogs for veterans and others with disabilities.
