ABOUT THE TOURNAMENT

The 8th annual Drive Golf Tournament supports the Epilepsy Foundation of Colorado and Wyoming, bringing together individuals, corporations, and healthcare organizations to support those in the community affected by epilepsy.

THE COURSE

Blackstone Country Club

Aurora, CO · Jay Morrish, 2007

A Jay Morrish-designed private parkland course in Aurora, built as the centerpiece of the Blackstone luxury community by Toll Brothers. Known for its 7,300-plus-yard championship layout sculpted from the prairie with strategic water hazards, deep bunkers, and views of the Rockies to the west. Now operated by Invited (formerly ClubCorp).

THE CAUSE

Epilepsy Foundation of Colorado and Wyoming

The regional chapter of the Epilepsy Foundation serving Colorado and Wyoming. Provides education, advocacy, and support programs for people living with epilepsy and seizure disorders, their caregivers, and their communities throughout the two states.
