ABOUT THE TOURNAMENT

The Big ParTee is a charity golf tournament benefiting the WillStrong Leukemia Program of the Morgan Adams Foundation, dedicated to funding childhood cancer research.

THE COURSE

Meridian Golf Club

Englewood, CO · Jack Nicklaus, 1984

A private Jack Nicklaus signature course in the Meridian business park south of Denver, opened in 1984. Known for a championship-length layout with strategic water hazards, well-placed bunkers, and an emphasis on family-friendly play. Bob Lohmann is also commonly credited as a co-architect.

THE CAUSE

WillStrong Leukemia Program of The Morgan Adams Foundation

A program of the Morgan Adams Foundation, a Colorado nonprofit dedicated to funding pediatric cancer research. The WillStrong Leukemia Program specifically supports research into pediatric leukemia in memory of patients touched by the disease.
